

Press Communiqué, 23 May 2008

The Fondation Napoléon has founded an e-journal.

www.napoleonicalarevue.org

The Fondation Napoléon's e-journal, Napoleonicala revue, went online on 19 May, 2008,. It is dedicated to the history of the two empires and is to come out three times a year. Annual subscription costs 60 euros, or individual articles can be purchased for 7 euros each.

Napoleonicala revue is academic in spirit, multi-disciplinary and international. It is open to all genres of history, namely, general, literary, social, economic, financial, institutional, administrative, military, diplomatic, art, etc. It is not Franco-centric and welcomes contributions from historians worldwide, particularly regarding their own countries (the languages of publication are however English and French).

The 'academic' and international editorial committee is headed by Patrice Gueniffey, director of studies at the Ecole des Hautes Etudes en sciences sociales and Director of the Centre Raymond Aron. The members are: Eric Anceau, Rafe Blaufarb, Jacques-Olivier Boudon, Pierre Branda, Steven Englund, Jacques Garnier, Sudhir Hazareesingh, Annie Jourdan, Luigi Mascilli Migliorini, Alain Pougetoux, Volker Sellin, Emmanuel de Waresquiel.

The creation of Napoleonicala revue was made possible by the generous support of the French Centre National du Livre.
